Ever Try This? It Is Real Delicacy, Is Opinion of Japanese

Here's a new delicacy:
The boiled tops of ferns.
Some dish, too, say the Japanese.

H. C. Boynton, who resides at 1802 Canada boulevard at the corner of Colina drive, reported to the police this morning that he ordered four parties of the orientals from his grounds yesterday morning as they were devastating the natural beauty of the Verdugo Woodlands arroyo.

They explained to him that the ferns are boiled, the water poured off, and boiled again, then served like asparagus.

"Well, I'm not raising greens to feed the multitude," commented Mr. Boynton, "but I am going to save the ferns and flowers here if I have to arrest the Japanese who flock to the foothills early Sunday mornings and trespass on my place."

Mr. Boynton is building a beautiful red hollow tile residence on the property.

Prophet Noah Screened

"And Noah went in, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives with him, into the ark, because of the waters of the flood."

"And Noah went forth, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives with him."

With James Gordon playing the patriarchal role of Noah, the last big scene of the second Bible episode was filmed last week at the Sacred Films studio in the Verdugo foothills near Burbank.

The final pictures portraying the flood with its prophet and his ark and the fifty-seven varieties of animals are being printed for early release, and hundreds of "extra" people who took part in the production are awaiting its preview at an early date.

Mascot for Fire House

The mournful cry of a hungry baby.

Such wakened the fire boys at Station No. 1 at 6 o'clock this morning.

"Where's the kid," George Blix asked.

"Right here," said Ira J. Herbert of the Glendale Patrol and Fire Dispatch, as he formally presented the department with its latest mascot—a billy goat.

"And just for that it shall be known as George Junior," he added.

A nice assortment of tin cans and old clothes is now being prepared for young George's diet.

Teddy! You Come Here!

Paging dog No. 352.

If Teddy Bulldog is around will he please get in communication with Horace Anderson, office boy at The Glendale Evening News.

For Horace lost his dog Saturday morning. Both reside at 454 West Maple—when they're home. But Horace works most of the time when he isn't at school. And maybe Teddy went out to look up a job for himself.

So, if anyone sees a bulldog, mostly brown with a white stripe on its head, please communicate with its owner.

Joke? Huh! 'Course Not!

"An April Fool joke which wasn't."

That would be a fitting title for the announcement of the birth on April 1 of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Helmer Nelson, who have recently moved from Los Angeles to their new home at 466 Riverdale drive.

When friends told Mr. Nelson during the day that the stork, conveyed by a fleet of airplanes, had left a baby to make his nights interesting, he would not believe them.

But when he arrived home in the evening and saw the evidence, he said: "By golly, this is no April fool joke."

Elder J. Adam Stevens is planning to visit all of the congregations in Central California, leaving on his mission the middle of the week.

RAIN 12.67 INCHES FOR SEASON; SNOW IN LOS ANGELES. USE TABERNACLE AS C. E. CONVENTION HEADQUARTERS

ANOTHER GOOD SOAKING NEEDED OF DISTRICT; HEAVY WIND CAUSING DISCOMFORT

Ranchers and gardeners wanted rain yesterday.

They got it. So did the people going home from the churches or theatres last night.

According to the record kept by H. E. Bartlett of this city, the total rainfall for the storm was .20 inches. All of which fell in about twenty minutes. This brings the season's total to 12.67 inches as compared with 15.81 inches last year.

Another good soaking storm is needed to make the farmers happy.

And it snowed in Los Angeles this morning.

Huh?

Yes, it snowed.

Early morning pedestrians and motorists witnessed a bit of rare weather in Los Angeles this morning when a drizzle of rain turned to snow.

Heavy Wind Here

Enough of the white stuff fell to cover the house tops and ground in some sections of Los Angeles.

In Glendale it was cold in the early morning and, too, a stiff wind was blowing.

"It's an ill wind that blows nobody good."

A windy morning, such as this morning, is a good thing for those who do not take a daily paper. All one needs to do is to stand out in the street and catch one as it comes along. If the first is not the particular one wanted, just wait a few minutes and a copy of the other morning daily will blow along.

Guests Of Pasadena Commerce Chamber

The regular monthly convention of the secretaries of the various Chambers of Commerce of Southern California took place Saturday at Pasadena, the chamber of that city officiating. The Glendale guests consisted of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Rhodes, Mr. Rhodes being secretary of the local Chamber of Commerce, and Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Rowley of 334 Vine street. Secretaries representing about sixty municipalities were present, and these, with their families and guests totalled nearly 200 delegates.

The day's events began at 11 o'clock when the merry-makers met at Brookside Park for a short business session, after which a luncheon was served under the trees of the park. The party then formed an automobile caravan and took a short motor ride through La Crescenta, Flintridge and Millard Canyon, stopping in the latter place at the beautiful country home of J. R. Bush, who acted as host to the officials and their friends, serving light refreshments in his semi-tropical garden surrounding the house. At 5 o'clock they returned to Pasadena, where an afternoon tea party was enjoyed at the luxuriously appointed tea rooms of the Vista del Arroyo hotel on Colorado boulevard.

Next on the day's program was a seven-course dinner at the dining room of the famous Hotel Green, where the party were guests of John Steven McGroarty and Frederick Ward of Mission Play fame. After several short addresses the favored visitors ended the day's pleasure by attending the "Mission Play" at San Gabriel as guests of the management.

Many People Moving On First Of Month

Many families are moving in Glendale the first of April, according to records at the public service department of the city. The following changes are noted on Saturday's report:

E. B. Calkins, 114 North Everett to 1116 East California; S. Pardee, 430 West Elk to 426 West Elk; H. Stiner, 243 North Belmont to Sacramento; Mrs. Bible, 130 South Adams to Dallas, Tex.; C. J. Chisholm, 210 East Cypress to 625 East Maple; D. B. Boyce from 605 North Glendale; Mrs. W. E. Roake, 1006 South Brand to 342 West Garfield; M. Lane, 1027 South Maryland to 1118 South San Fernando; L. C. Green, 319 East Dryden to 530 West Harvard.

The following new residents and others have asked for service or meter installations:

D. M. Hartford, 312 West Acacia; H. Hankin, 413 West Garfield; James H. Searies, 1234 South Boynton; Mrs. M. Lyons, 1028 South Glendale; H. A. Worsley, 346 Vine; and C. W. Ingledue, 130 North Maryland.

PROBLEM OF WHERE TO SIT THOUSANDS OF VISITORS IN JUNE IS SOLVED

By GLEN AND DALE

Have you visited our downtown headquarters in Glendale? Roy Kent has given us desk space in his new office, 130 South Brand. Mail can be sent there now and some of these fine days we will have a telephone all our own. We'd like to greet you there in real Spanish costume as we did the Whittier people two weeks ago, but we are really busy these days and haven't time to dress up. Mr. Baird, our financial secretary, will be glad to answer any of your questions.

When we first knew that we were to have the convention in Glendale we wondered where we would meet. We didn't want a tent and the churches would just be sufficient for section meetings. This is the way things are working out. Friday morning a permit was issued the John Brown committee for a large temporary tabernacle to be erected on the southwest corner of Harvard and Orange. Isn't that a good central location? We think so, for we helped pick it out. Last week preliminary work was done by men who willingly gave their time. This week work will be rushed.

Old-Fashioned Barn Raising

It reminds you of an old-fashioned barn raising. The Methodist ladies are planning to serve hot dinners to all the men who will donate their services for the day or week. The committee will be glad to use as many as 100.

After the John Brown meetings "Glen and Dale" own the tabernacle. W. G. Boyd, a contractor of this city, and chairman of our Halls committee, and his vice chairman, E. D. Yard, have made arrangements with the John Brown people to have the sides of the tabernacle made high enough to be removed and extended in June and thus provide a seating capacity of 4,500 persons.

Miss Myrtle Harris Speaker At P.-T. A.

Miss Myrtle B. Harris of Pasadena, long experienced as a teacher, was the principal speaker at the Seventh-day Adventist Parent-Teacher association Saturday night at the regular monthly meeting. Her topic, "The Adolescent Child," was well presented. Charts and illustrations were used to further exemplify the instructions given.

The ladies of the association are busily preparing for a sale which will take place Thursday, April 7, from 1 until 9 p. m. at 104 East Broadway. This sale is for the benefit of the domestic science room of the Adventist school. Those in charge of the different booths are Mrs. N. S. Miller, who will handle the cooked foods; Mrs. W. C. Raley, who will dispense home-made candies, preserved fruits, and so forth; Mrs. J. J. Brown, at whose booth ready-made garments may be had; Mrs. C. H. Jones, who will have charge of the miscellaneous articles. The entire proceeds will be used to furnish the domestic science room of the school.

Mountain Avenue To Be Paved By County

Mountain avenue, an extension of Eleventh street in Burbank, has been ordered paved by the county board of supervisors from the Burbank city limits to Grand view street, the two streets meeting in front of L. C. Brand's palatial foothill home. Part of this paving, it is understood, comes within the city limits of Glendale.

Burbank is asking for bids on the paving of Eleventh street and when that city, Glendale and the county complete the work another foothill drive from San Bernardino to Santa Monica will have been linked.

It will be one of the most sightly boulevards from a panoramic standpoint in the country, a sweep of all the San Fernando valley being obtained as well as a birdseye view of Glendale and northern Los Angeles.

R. F. Gomes Is Now Located In Glendale

R. F. Gomes, one of the leading painting and decorating contractors of San Diego, where he did many of the best residences and public buildings during the last sixteen years, has located in Glendale, at 1244 South Walnut street.

He has just finished the fine new home for Wallace Reid on Sunset boulevard in Hollywood for the Frank Meline company.

STILLMAN AGREES TO PAY HIS WIFE $7500 MONTHLY

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., April 4.—James A. Stillman today agreed to pay his wife $7500 per month alimony and counsel fees ordered by Justice Morschauer. Acting for the banker in his divorce suit, Outerbridge Horsey drafted an order providing for the payments to Mrs. Stillman. Horsey continued arguments, however, for the admission of affidavits and alleged letters said to support the banker's charges against his wife's conduct. J. Arthur Levy of Stillman's counsel, announced Mrs. Stillman will be paid $15,000 alimony for March and April within three days and that monthly payments of $7500 will be paid thereafter. Counsel fees will be paid, he said, in three ten-day installments of $15,833.33 each. The communication to Germany was in direct reply to one handed by the German foreign minister, Dr. Simons, to American Commissioner Dresel in Berlin. This was on March 23 and the American reply was dated March 29. The state department today specifically denied that the communication from the United States was considered a formal note.

The most conspicuous of these is Eugene V. Debs, now in Atlanta federal penitentiary, whose case is now under review by Attorney General Daugherty. Another delegation, composed largely of Socialists, is to call at the White House on the same mission, April 13. The labor delegation is restricting its appeal to those who are serving sentences because of their opinions regarding the war. The draft evaders and those convicted of activity designed to hinder the prosecution of the war, are not included in the category of political prisoners, in the opinion of Gompers.

Los Angeles Trust & Savings Bank, Glendale Avenue Branch, Glendale, Cal. Dated April 2, 1921. 1807

CHICAGO, April 14.—Miss Bertha Bowman, Lady Anti-nicotine, called on 500,000 members of the Women's Christian Temperance union today to pray tobacco out of existence.

"It took 40 years of prayer to bury John Barleycorn," said Miss Bowman. "Now we are praying that Lady Nicotine be placed in the grave next to him."

The W. C. T. U. goes about its business—and its business is to make the world a better place to live in—in a quiet manner, explained Miss Bowman.

"We don't have campaigns, we have movements," she said. "Hatchet-swinging methods of militant reform make the reform longer in coming. The prayers of the righteous are more potent than shouts."

In connection with the prayer, members of the W. C. T. U. are striving to convince persons under 21 years of age of the harmful effect of smoke-filled lungs and tobacco-filled cheeks.

"We are also working to create public opinion against girls and women selling tobacco in hotels, theatre lobbies and railway stations," said Helen G. H. Estelle, who is the superintendent of the anti-narcotic department of the W. C. T. U. cabinet.

"In a tactful way we are planning to protest to managers of restaurants against allowing smoking in dining rooms. Smoke is objectionable to many."

"State boards of health will be asked to forbid smoking in markets and stores where foodstuffs are sold. "Sentiment for passing of local ordinances against smoking in voting places will be created."

Makes Suggestion
Regards Pool Hall

Editor The Evening News: There seems to be keen disappointment among the young men of our city over the failure in passing at our last election of the civic center proposition. Proper recreation for our young people, especially our young men, should be given consideration by all.

Some time ago there was considerable discussion pro and con of having pool halls in Glendale. Those in favor of having them called to our attention the fact that there was nothing for the young man to do other than to loaf on the street corners or to go to Los Angeles for their diversion. Those against the pool halls claimed, among other things, that on account of the difficulty of proper control they would be a detriment not only to the young man, but to the community at large.

With due regards to both sides, I think I have a proposition to make which will answer all arguments for and against. The Fifth Separate Company Infantry, California National Guard, otherwise known as "Glendale's Own" of which I am commanding officer, have rented a hall for club rooms. The location is ideal, being on Brand boulevard, next to the Pacific Electric station. It is our intention and desire to equip this hall with everything to make it a desirable place in which the men may spend their leisure time, some of the equipment being a piano, writing tables, reading material and games of the different kinds.

Makes Suggestion

Now, why not answer the pro and con of the "pool hall situation" by adding about three pool tables to our equipment. There could be no argument about control, for it would be under the control of Uncle Sam, represented by the officers of our company who have at heart both the interests of Glendale and the young men.

The National Guard is a federalized institution and is supported by the government. We think we can offer an answer to any and all objections to joining the guards. Our organization is not run for profit, but is a distinct benefit to all who belong to it. The United States pays the men for their attendance at drill, furnish them with their uniforms and other equipment and allows money for rent of army and club rooms.
Some people think it is easy to get into and difficult to get out of, but they are mistaken because if any of the men desire to get out or prove undesirable through lack of attendance or other reasons, they are given their discharge, for only boosters are wanted. It is our intention to keep our club rooms open from 4 in the afternoon until 10 at night, and an older man capable of handling the situation will be in charge at all hours.
There will be no charge for use of club rooms.

THOS. D. WATSON.

I stepped into a bargain shop
For outfits cheap but new—Looked 'round and thought I'd fairly drop

The "gang" was parked there too!

I sold my car—you all know why—
The subway served my ends—
My ribs were almost caved in by The elbows of my friends!

And now I read with keen delight
On placards through the town,
"The prices that were out of sight
Are slowly coming down!"

HARD TIMES DANCE BY EMPLOYEES OF MORELAND CO.

NUMBER OF GLENDALE FOLK ARE IN ATTENDANCE AT SOCIAL GATHERING

A very interesting and informal affair was the hard times dance given in the social hall of the Moreland Motor Truck Company at Burbank for the employees of that company exclusively. Glendale and Burbank were both well represented in the attendance of over 200 which was present. Fines were imposed upon all entering who wore other than hard times costumes. This dance was given by the Moreland Social Welfare club, the officers of which are as follows: V. J. Wagoner, of Glendale, president; Mr. Watley of Los Angeles, vice president; Rex Gale of Glendale, treasurer; Miss Elsie Balsinger of Los Angeles, secretary. The committee in charge consisted of Miss Lucille Anderson of Los Angeles, chairman; Miss Pearl King of Glendale, Joe Schriner of Los Angeles, and Jack Williams of Burbank.

Punch Served at Bar

The principle feature of the decorations was a string of ragged clothes hung from the beams over the place designated for the 5-piece orchestra which furnished the music for the occasion. A very clever arrangement was carried out in the dispensing of punch during the evening at an improvised bar at one corner of the social hall. Characteristic atmosphere, except alcoholic, was suggested in the signs, sawdust floor, counter, trays, glasses and free lunch and other typical paraphernalia on view on the shelves. Large kettles served as punch bowls, carrying out the hard times idea. The bartender, Mr. Melandri, in costume, greeted each guest approaching his counter with "What will you have?"
After having one glass of the delicious punch, several of the gentlemen were heard to ask for "chasers," but, do not get excited, it was only pure unfermented California fruit juice.

Prize Awards Made

At 10 o'clock a semi-grand march was held, during which costumes were judged for the awarding of prizes. The judges were Mrs. Rogers of Burbank, Claude Botsford of Glendale and Mr. Doekery of Glendale. The first prize for the ladies, which was an order for a pair of hose, was awarded to Miss Jahnke of Los Angeles, and the gentlemen's prize, a combination bill case, was awarded to Mr. Patterson of Los Angeles, who wore an entire suit made from burlap. The costume of Miss Jahnke consisted of old-fashioned, patched clothing, shoes of a different color and a funny little hat.
Farmers, farmerettes, tramps and many other characters were cleverly depicted in the costumes worn.

These dances under the auspices of Moreland Social Welfare club are given at least once a month and are much enjoyed by the employees.

C. E. McPeck Making Business Alterations

C. E. McPeck, who for years has conducted a plumbing establishment at 110 West Broadway, announces that he will add to his establishment an electrical wiring and appliance department. P. R. Machtoff, formerly of Alabama, will have charge of the electrical department, while W. E. Scott of Saginaw, Mich., will oversee the plumbing work under Mr. McPeck's direction. Crews of plumbers and electricians will be available for construction jobs and this firm will be ready to meet all of the demands experienced during the big activity in building here.

Gas fixtures, in addition to the electrical and plumbing lines, are now carried in stock, Mr. McPeck states, and he invites the inspection of the builders before they contract for such work.

Major McKillip And

Major and Mrs. Monroe McKillip of Chicago arrived in Glendale Saturday, April 2, and have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Baird of 627 North Orange street and Dr. and Mrs. T. C. Young of 400 North Kenwood street. Major McKillip has been engaged quite extensively in the manufacture of dresses at Battle Creek, Michigan. He is out here in the capacity of salesman for manufactured goods, and after viewing various points in California intends to select a place in which to make his permanent home. At present Glendale by far has the preference as being the most desirable residential city.

YOU CAN NEVER TELL

Jack started out to find The Girl.
Mary Ellen taught school. She looked at him soberly and squarely.
Jack thought her cold and a prude.
Mary Ellen thought he was ideal.
She dreamed a little dream to herself about a home, and him and babies.

Madeline worked in an office. She gave him a wicked little glance out of the corner of her eye. He thought her a flirt.

Madeline had seen a great many men and knew them fairly well. She measured him for what he was—unsophisticated; she was only teasing him.

Gertrude was really unsophisticated and lived with her mother. She saw he was as innocent as she was and she was just practicing on him, for her great ambition was to act like the other actresses did. Jack passed her up.

Emmy Lou lived at home and worked at being sweet and pretty.
Her eyes were downcast. She did not look at Jack at all.

He thought she was The Girl.
He called a taxi to take her home.
When she got him alone, she worked faster than the meter.

LOCAL ELKS BEATEN ROMANCE IN EARLY INCORPORATION OF IN BALL GAME BY LIFE OF LINCOLN CANNING CONCERN SAN FERNANDO IS DESCRIBED IS ANNOUNCED

LODGE TEAM LOSES BY SCORE OF 4 TO 6; PLENTY OF THRILLS PROVIDED

The San Fernando baseball team, considered to be the strongest aggregation in the valley, barely nosed out the team representing the Glendale Elks in an exciting game yesterday afternoon on the former's diamond. A large crowd of spectators was on hand to witness the contest, the attendance being about an even thousand.

The game was replete with thrills, although the defeat of the local entry could be directly attributed to errors. The going was about on a par until the last of the eighth inning, when the San Fernando players scored two runs. Bolin, the Glendale pitcher who replaced Holbrook in the fourth inning, started by fanning ten batters in five innings, while "Lefty" Herman, the hard-hitting first baseman, was the batting hero, getting a three-base hit and a single. The box score:

Twelve Inning Game Won by South Glendale

A very interesting game which was enjoyed by a large attendance was the one played Sunday on the grounds of the Glendale Athletic club, of which W. R. Cozart is manager, at Park avenue and San Fernando, when the South Glendale baseball nine played the Marble Gilding company of Los Angeles. It was necessary to play twelve innings as the game stood a tie at the end of the ninth inning. C. Crug working on the mound and McMullen behind the plate had to do some clever work to gain the victory. The battery for the Marble Gilding company, Brown and Straut, were also clever and did some wonderful work. The final score stood South Glendale 12 hits, 3 errors and 4 runs and Marble Gilding company 9 hits, 3 errors and 3 runs. Manager Crane of the South Glendale nine is certainly working up a fast team.

"SOUL OF ANN RUTLEDGE" IS AT BRANCH LIBRARY; NEW BOOKS ARE RELEASED

By CHARLES H. CUSHING
Librarian Glendale Branch Library
In the "Soul of Ann Rutledge" one has another story of the romance of Lincoln's early life. It is written by Bernie Babecek and unfolds in a beautiful and poetic way the deep, religious and spiritual nature of the great man as it developed in his young days. The soul of Ann and that of Lincoln seemed to meet in a great spiritual love of the highest kind. While the tragedy of Ann's early death prevented its fulfillment, its influence must have been felt through life and strengthened his great faith in immortality.

This book is very different from "A Man for the Ages," by Irving Bacheller reviewed some time ago. The latter is a splendid and realistic depiction of Lincoln's character from beginning to end, while "The Soul of Ann Rutledge" makes the romance the central feature and the story closes with its culmination.

Another bookmaking immortality its central theme is "Abraham's Bosom," by Basil King. Just a little book but full of inspiration.

Valuable Reference

A very valuable reference set has just been added to the branch library, "Carpentry and Contracting," in five volumes, published by the American Technical society. The following subjects are treated in the set—carpentry, painting, plastering, blue print reading, mechanical drawing, architectural drawing, sheet metal work, building superintendence, underwriters' requirements, heating and ventilation, steam and hot-water fitting, sanitary appliances, water supply, drainage and venting, domestic hot water supply and hardware.

The following new books have just been released for the little folks: "The Joyous Travelers" by Lindsay and Poulsson; "Running Eagle" and "Rising Wolf" by Schultz; "The Pool of Stars" by Meigs.

A number of volumes of the "Motor Boy" series has been presented by Mrs. B. J. Lunn. These are always great favorites with the boys. The children's story hour has been changed to 3 p. m. every Saturday.

Evening News Sent To Philippine Islands

While The Glendale Evening News has been sent all over the world, it is interesting to note that J. G. Hertweck of North Verdugo Road has forwarded twenty copies of Friday's issue to Senor Don A. Escamilla, secretario el Camora de Filipinas, Manila, P. I. On account of the numerous articles of general interest every available copy has already been sold, all records on street sales having been broken Friday.

The circulation of The Glendale Evening News also is greater than ever before. A comparison shows more classified and display advertising by far than a year ago and the printing department of The Glendale Evening News is kept running at full speed.

Many visitors in Glendale are surprised to see a newspaper and printing establishment in a city this size that is the last word in modernity and so well equipped to produce a distinctively local daily paper.

Broadway Gathering Is Greatly Enjoyed

A very interesting program, which had been arranged by the Broadway Parent-Teacher association, of which Mrs. H. H. Jepson is president, was appreciated by the large attendance of fathers who responded to the invitation to attend the Fathers' Night at that school. A talk on "Visual Education," illustrated with lantern slides, was given by Mr. Upjohn of the county superintendent's office. He especially emphasized the value of pictures in the study of such subjects as geography. Mrs. Phillips, secretary of the association, delightfully rendered several piano selections. R. D. White, superintendent of city schools, gave a short talk, after which a social hour was enjoyed, during which punch and wafers were served.

Jeffries Buys 200 Acres
James J. Jeffries, one of the large stock raisers and ranchers near Burbank, is reported purchaser of 200 acres of land near Cypress, six miles west of Anaheim. Whether or not he has bought the property as an oil investment or to establish a hog ranch has not been ascertained from the former heavyweight champion of the padded mitts.

To Build Factory
The Crystal & Colored Glass company has purchased a two-acre tract in Burbank and will put up a factory to commence operation within sixty days. Charles G. Mayer, who recently came from Belgium, holds the secret of the coloring process and it will be the second plant of its kind in America to manufacture similar products.

Building Permits
Burbank's building permits for the first three months of 1921 totaled approximately $275,000. March building amounted to nearly $200,000. The Empire China company plant and several store buildings are included in the list.

Paving Contract
Contract for the paving of the Santa Susana grade from Chatsworth to the summit, a distance of about two and one-half miles, is before the county board of supervisors for action. When completed this will add considerable to the through Los Angeles to San Francisco traffic by this scenic route.

Building Whole City
"Doug" Fairbanks is building a whole city for his next film on the Asa Green ranch near Roscoe. Pictures are to be made during April and carpenters are busy completing the set.

Three-Store Building
W. H. Ramsey started work the first of the month on a new three-store building at the corner of San Fernando Road and Tulunga avenue in Burbank. W. S. Walker, formerly of Glendale, has engaged in the realty business in that city, also.

Juvenile Auxiliary To Club Is Formed

Unusual interest was shown by the children of Glendale from 6 to 14 years of age in the organization of the juvenile auxiliary of the Glendale Music club. Of the thirty-one children who responded to the invitation to attend the meeting Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. N. Arnold, 211 East Lomita avenue, thirty enrolled as members.

The following officers were elected: Helen Sternberg, president; Edwin Cline, vice president; Marguerite Chappell, second vice president; Gladys Woodyard, recording secretary; Helen White, corresponding secretary; Josephine McClaren, treasurer; Margaret Longley, historian. This auxiliary was organized by Mrs. Mattison B. Jones, vice-president of the California Federation of Music Clubs and president of the Glendale Music club.

Members of the auxiliary contributed the following delightful program: Piano selection, "Dance of the Elves" (Dorothy Ganyor Blake), by Betty Hagood; piano solo, "The Larks" (Tschalkowsky), by Marguerite Chappell; vocal solo, "Bubbles," by Preston Hanning; piano selections, "Military March" (Dorothy Blake), and "The Elf in Dance" (Goodrich) by Rebecca Brant. Meetings of the auxiliary will be held the first Saturday of every month. The next meeting will be Saturday, May 7, at the home of Mrs. Arnold.

Business Section Of Tiburon Destroyed

SAN FRANCISCO, April 4.—Thirteen buildings, comprising five houses and eight stores, were burned early today by fire which swept through the business section of the town of Tiburon, located on the Marin county side of San Francisco bay.

For a time the fire, fanned by a heavy gale, which had been blowing for thirty-six hours, threatened not only to wipe out the town of Tiburon, but also to sweep the Northwestern Pacific railroad shops and freight terminal near the town. The railroad property, however, was saved.

The fire started shortly after midnight in Sullivan's pool hall. Just how it started was not known. It spread quickly to adjoining buildings and soon the skies were lighted brightly with the glow from a half dozen flame enveloped frame structures.

Help was rushed from Belvidere, Sausalito and other nearby places. The ferry boat, Tamalpais, was sent to San Francisco by the Northwestern Pacific railroad and brought over a load of fire fighters and extra fire apparatus, including some loaned by the San Francisco department. By 2:30 a. m. telephone communications had been cut off through the burning of wire connections. The town was soon after cast into darkness when electric service was cut off.

By 4 o'clock the fire had reached a crisis and by that time scores of volunteer fire fighters, using every weapon available, were engaged in the battle which resulted in the fire being controlled about 6:30 a. m. By 7 o'clock the smoldering ruins were about all there was left of the blaze which an hour before had been classed as the most fierce ever seen on this side of the bay.

Late reports were that the club house of the Corinthian Yacht club narrowly escaped destruction. While it was known the building was not destroyed, owing to a lack of communications it could not be determined whether it had actually sustained damage.

Estimates of the fire loss varied from $50,000 to $250,000, but it was generally agreed that the first figure was more nearly correct. Accurate estimates will not be available until it is possible to make an inventory of the fire zone to determine whether anything was saved from the stocks of the burned stores. The saving of the Northwestern Pacific shops and other property was a large factor in keeping the financial loss to a minimum.

PASADENA DISTRICT OFFICIAL SPEAKS IN CHURCH HERE

DR. DAVIS TALKS AT SERVICE AT FIRST METHODIST; NEW OFFICERS INSTALLED

Dr. W. L. Y. Davis, superintendent of the Pasadena district, occupied the pulpit at the First Methodist Episcopal church Sunday morning. He congratulated the congregation on their increase of membership. The goal set for the district is 10 per cent increase for the conference year. The First Methodist Episcopal church of Glendale has added 175 members and made an increase of 25 per cent, and is leading the entire district, with special services about to begin.

Dr. Davis is a very pleasing and entertaining speaker. His subject was "The Triumphant Ministry of Christ." Scripture texts, "And they shall call His name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is God with us; and also 'And thou shalt call His name Jesus for He shall save His people from their sins.' He graphically described how the influence of Christ has widened and extended, not confined to the church but has reached out into business, into the street.

"One cannot go up into the mountains or into the desert even but he can behold the touch of the Divine hand in the purple haze of the landscape, the beautiful rays of the sunsets, Christ is the artist," he said. "But His greatest skill is displayed in the transformation of man. As a boy I worked in a country newspaper office—set type when I was so short I had to stand on a box. The man I worked for was the worst specimen I had ever met. (Harsh in manner, dissolute in character, profane in language. Years afterward when I had grown to manhood I chanced to meet him, and he started to tell me of a change that had come into his life, but I had already noticed it. His ruddy glow of health, his straight figure, his buoyant step all betokened the transformation. Christ had come into his life.

"Several years back they taught in the schools that there were 50 to 60 important elements in the universe. Now it is all summed up in one word—energy. And what is energy but another name for my Heavenly Father. God in all things. The Jews had the idea that God's presence existed alone in the ark of the covenant, but when it was stolen to their surprise His presence still remained. The time is coming when every man who will shall be a king or priest to God; every man a potential child of God. No secular days but every day holy unto God. If God could speak through an old sage brush away back on ancient mountain, can He not speak to us through these orange trees that surround us?

"We are, indeed, treading on holy ground. God shall preserve us from danger. All the promises of the 91st Psalm are ours. And what dangers He does not see best to preserve us from He will preserve us in them. For, example, the Israelites in the wilderness, the three Hebrews in the fiery furnace, Lazarus in the grave.

"The greatest thing he has provided salvation from is from our sins. All of our sins. Our constitutional sins, the sins that do so easily beset us. But one thing he cannot save us from and that is the penalty, lost health, lost years, lost opportunities. The penalties must be met. But He can be with us in all our penalties, assist us in all our difficulties, for His name is Emmanuel which, being interpreted, is God with us."

Officers Are Installed
In the evening the newly-elected officers of the Epworth League were installed as follows:
President, G. Edwin Murphy.
First Vice-President, Henry Melone.
Second Vice-Presidents, Verne Wilson, Laveria Kitterman.
Third Vice-Presidents, Mrs. G. E. Murphy, Dorothy Hamilton.
Fourth Vice-Presidents, Dorothy Peart, Helen Ingledue.
Secretary, Bessie Ross.
Treasurer, Cecil Percy.
Advertising Manager, Kenneth Crist.
Membership Committee, Elwood Ingledue, Lois Percy.
Carl Seidler, the newly-elected educational director, followed with an address along the lines of his department and emphasized the value of service. By special request the choir repeated the Easter cantata, "Victory Divine." Special events scheduled for the week are a District Conference of the Woman's Home Missionary society on Tuesday and the musical concert of the Throop College Glee club on Saturday evening.

Placing Cornerstone For Catholic Church

The first Sabbath after Easter, Low Sunday, was observed at the Holy Family Catholic church here yesterday by Father James S. O'Neill. He read the gospel of St. John 20:19-31. The cornerstone for the new church at Elk Avenue and Louise street, it is announced, will be laid Sunday, April 17, at 3 p. m. The Right Rev. Monsignor Harnett, V. G., will officiate at the ceremonies.

EASTER, THEN WHAT? TEXT OF TALK BY REV. EDMONDS

PASTOR ALSO SPEAKS ABOUT EVANGELISTIC CAMPAIGN TO BE HELD SOON

The text of the sermon of Rev. W. E. Edmonds at the Presbyterian church was taken from the beginning of the book of Acts, the history immediately following upon Christ's resurrection and ascension:—"What meaneth this?" (Acts 2:12). The following is a brief outline:

"After Easter, what? Pentecost, of course. After the reappearance of the risen Christ, and His ascension to glory, the natural sequence was the out-pouring of the Holy Spirit. After that group in the upper room had really seen their risen Lord they went out with fire in their souls; but He had commanded them to wait in Jerusalem until they should receive power; 'dynamite.' Their coming work was a promised success before they had begun. God's providence had prepared for that day, for there were gathered in Jerusalem for the feast time Jews from all countries. The disciples with others of like spirit were gathered to the number of 120, and with one mind, solemn and expectant, had been waiting. Suddenly upon this company came the promised outpouring of the Holy Spirit, with supernatural manifestations; and wholly new powers of utterance came upon them. The news spread, and crowds pressed in. Critics sprang up instantly, charging that 'new wine' was the cause of all they saw and heard. But the critics had not reckoned with the Spirit-filled man Peter. He stands up full of power and begins to preach to the crowd and to tell them the truth. The Spirit begins to work upon them, and pricked in their hearts they cry, 'What shall we do?' and are told, 'Repent and be baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus for the remission of sins; and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.' And that day there were born again about 3000 souls. Such, in brief, is the story of the Pentecost. What meaneth this?

Holy Spirit Is Person
"First, that there has come down from heaven the Third Person of the Trinity. Jesus had said: 'If I go away I will send Him; He shall be with you, and teach you.' The Holy Spirit is a person. Further, it means that the Spirit has come to be a definite power in the life of the believer. Though there be no noise, there is power all the same. There is no noise about the shining of light. Henceforth He is residing in the world, embodied in men and women; and there is no place for defeat.

"What meaneth this? That you should have power in testimony. That you should have a new power in prayer. The primitive church marched forward upon its knees. It means the salvation of sinners, and in this the church must be united. Other things there were of secondary importance and so they must be to us.

"This power will manifest itself in a concern for lost souls. Some way we never have awakened to the value of a soul.

"Two weeks from today we enter on a campaign for souls. A year ago we began to prepare. Evangelist John Brown, who is to come to us, was with us six years ago, and is known as a truly Spirit-filled man, led of God, wise and sane. You are to be asked to work, in various capacities, for three solid weeks. There are practical things we can do to help. We will give up all our common meetings. Let us pray; let us make our prayer lists. We will give ourselves to this program of evangelization.

"But get right yourself. If there is a grievance, take it out and drop it into the ocean. Don't block the way of the oncoming tide. Don't be an Achan.

"If there is any one in this congregation that don't care about the lost, how would you feel if they were your very own? The fathers and mothers who have children you care about—how will they see Jesus except through you?"

Rain Drives Many Into Married Life

CHICAGO—"Night's the time for wooing, oh," said a well-known Scotch authority.

But L. C. Legner, in charge of the Cook county marriage license bureau, has another version.

"When it's rainy and the fog settles down over the old town, why people just naturally get lonely," said Legner, "and they dream of cozy flats and fireplaces, slippers and home-made biscuits—they want to love and hold hands.

"So on rainy days, we issue many more marriage licenses than when the sun is brightly shining."

Dan Cupid is still as active as ever this year but marriage licenses are falling off, according to Legner. High rents, the employment situation, or "something else" is the cause, Legner doesn't quite know.

Last year 42,503 couples were married in Cook county. The A. E. P. got married in 1920. But now most of the war romances have gone on the rocks or the participants are married. But 1921 is going to be a bad year for weddings.

"This marriage license window is an excellent barometer for the country's economic condition," added Legner.

Cupid's agent, however, denied that romance is waning and that people aren't lovin' any more.

"One can be in love and not get married," he explained.

Dispatches here from other cities of United States reflect a similar condition. People are putting off their weddings until the jobs look safer.

The largest yield of bone from a single whale was taken in 1833, and amounted to 3110 pounds.

POMONA COLLEGE HAS UNDER WAY

FREDERICK EDWARDS, SPEAKER AT SUNDAY SERVICE

Frederick Edwards of Pomona college spoke in the First Congregational church yesterday morning on "The Place of Pomona College in the Life of California." He gave a clear presentation of the work that the college is doing and its needs today. The college must expand if she is to supply the demands that are made upon her. The music was under the direction of Mrs. C. A. Parker. The choir sang "Far, Far From My Heavenly Home." Mrs. Parker and Mrs. Gladys G. Sherman sang a duet and Mr. O. E. Von Owen sang a solo.

At the evening service Rev. C. M. Calderwood spoke on "Christian Fundamentals in An Age of Isms." He said:

"Isms have come and gone. These isms keep us disturbed, but they make us think. Often they correct our thinking and many times they have made contribution. But it is a mistake to take the fragments of truth for the whole truth. We have denominationalism, conservatism, liberalism, radicalism, socialism, paternalism, anarchism and many other isms. These isms are presented to us as panaceas for our social, national and world troubles. Isms feed the soul on fancy crackers when the soul needs solid meat. People put their trust in isms and their faith in the fundamentals is undermined.

Great Needs of Today
"The great needs of today are the fundamentals. We need more faith today in the scholarly study of the Bible; we need to realize that God is in His universe and that He has messages for us; and we need to put a firmer trust in Christ as our living Master, not a dead Christ who is to come again, but an ever present Christ and who is today working with us for world redemption. Do we believe in Christ's program for the bringing in of God's kingdom or in the foolishness and absurdity of premillennialism?

"We need a return to Christ's program of world salvation and not to the ism of modern imbecils."

Annual Meeting For Tropico Church Held

Last Wednesday night the annual meeting of the Tropico Presbyterian church was held. Supper planned by Mrs. S. A. Brown, Mrs. Wilcox and Mrs. Cummings was enjoyed by a large proportion of the congregation. The girls of the I. C. O. class served. Very encouraging reports of the societies were read. The Ladies Aid though a small organization surprised all with the amount of work accomplished. The Sunday school, C. E. and Missionary societies have all given more than was expected. More than the quota was given to benevolences and while the expenses had been more than last year all bills had been paid and the trustees announced a good balance in the bank.

In appreciation of the faithful work of the pastor, Rev. O. P. Rider, it was voted to give him a present of an extra $100. Next year's budget includes an amount for a daily vacation Bible school such as has been held in the church two summers, but not included in the budget at that time.

HAROLD LLOYD AT GLENDAL THEATRE

"NOW OR NEVER" IS COMEDY THAT PLEASES; AVIATION LUNCHEON PICTURES

Harold Lloyd had 'em howling at the Glendale Theatre last night in his latest monarch of comedies, "Now or Never."

It will be seen again today and tonight and as an added attraction, the premier showing of James W. Horne's pictures of "America's First Aviation Luncheon" at the palatial home of L. C. Brand, north of Glendale, will attract many who saw the planes flying over the city Friday. Quite a number of those attending the effete affair will be present tonight.

Then, too, a giddy experience in the whirl of New York society and the restful glimpses of a New England farm are in store for the playgoers who attend the Glendale Theatre today when "Society Secrets" will be shown also. The Universal screen drama features Eva Novak.

The third episode of "The Son of Tarzan," latest Pathe News and Topics of the Day round out the film program, while Madame Clement plays "My Mother's Evening Prayer" on the southland's greatest organ. "Up in Mary's Attic" with Eva Novak and Harry Gribben is tomorrow's feature.

Louise Dresser And J. Gardner In Films

Louise Dresser and Jack Gardner, widely known vaudeville stars, whose permanent home is at 1225 Mountain street in North Glendale, will abandon the Orpheum circuit and make twelve two-reel comedies during the coming year. Already they have leased space at the Brunton studio in Hollywood and will commence work April 15 on their first production, "The Fat Fighters." Willard Lewis, a Glendale film star, will play opposite Louise Dresser (Mrs. Gardner) and Jack Gardner will be the director.

SO LONG, BROWN
"Sorry, Brown," said the doctor after the examination. "You're in a very serious condition. I'm afraid I'll have to operate on you."
"Operate!" gasped Brown. "Why I haven't any money for an operation. I'm only a poor working man."
"You're insured, are you not?"
"Yes, but I don't get that until I'm dead."
"Oh, that'll be all right," said the doctor, consolingly.

SACRED CANTATA BY CHORAL SOCIETY GAINS PRAISE

'DAVID THE SHEPHERD BOY' IS WELL RENDERED BY NUMBER OF SINGERS

Neither rain nor cold sufficed to keep away the large audience which heard the sacred cantata, "David the Shepherd Boy," rendered by the Seventh-day Adventist Choral society Sunday night. The entire program was well rendered and the sweetness and harmony of the composition was brought out in choruses, solos and other parts and the children's chorus.

C. H. Jones ably directed the work and also took the part of Jesse and Jonathan. Mrs. C. E. Swartsfager as pianist and Mrs. W. J. Thompson at the organ contributed much to the success of the evening's program.

Those Who Took Part

Special parts taken were as follows:

David, E. A. MacDonald.
Saul, Melvin Munson.
Samuel, Dr. C. A. Brandstater.
Michal, Miss L. Munson.
Abner, Elder H. F. Taylor.

Two choruses were sung by a bevy of school children, "Children of Bethlehem" and "The Rosy Heights of Carmel."

A large rostrum was arranged for the seating of the singers and was beautifully decorated with palms, asparagus fern, white wisteria and many roses.

Great Britain Faces Crisis in Walkout

By ED L. KEEN

United Press Staff Correspondent
LONDON, April 4.—Great Britain today faced the greatest crisis since the call for the first hundred thousand in 1914.

With 1,200,000 coal miners already on strike and industry in general already suffering from a shortage of fuel, week-end meetings of the miners' allies show a decided trend toward sympathetic strikes.

Regarded as more significant than a mere strike, labor's gesture was looked upon as a threat to force a general election on the country and, if possible, secure control of the government.

Government officials believe the activity portended an attempt to impose great socialistic experiments on the country.

The cabinet met early today before the emergency session of parliament opened.

Government officials prepared for the debate on strike conditions which was sure to come up today. The government's plan for combatting the threatened attack on industry were to be drafted.

The stubbornness of the battle to be waged was indicated by resolutions adopted in widespread meetings of railway and transport workers over the week-end. The men decided to support the miners "by any action deemed necessary."

"Our downfall is the doom of the government," was a phrase used in the meetings.

Miners' leaders, admitting the seriousness of sabotage, declared it was necessary and approved the action of miners in withdrawing safely workers and flooding some of the pits.

Suffering already has resulted from the mine strike. The men who walked out added 1,200,000 to the 1,500,000 already registered as unemployed.

Seven hundred and fifty thousand workers have been cut to half time and it is believed that a total of more than 3,500,000 are out of work or are working only part time. Thousands have not registered as unemployed.

Statistics estimated that with an average of four dependents for every worker, a total of 18,000,000 persons are directly affected by the strike.

If the railway and transport workers are added to the list after their meetings on Tuesday and Wednesday, the total will be increased by possibly 12,000,000 more.

Harry Gribben And Party At Glendale

Harry Gribben and a party of forty who appeared in "His Hansom Butler," which had its preview at the Glendale theatre Saturday night, were present in person and the star proved that he had lost none of his versatility on the speaking stage by entertaining the audience with funny stories and a short talk about the picture. He will be seen in film here again at the Glendale theatre in the rip-roaring comedy drama "Up in Mary's Attic."

Southern California

Builds Show Place

Architect Mott M. Marston is building a plaster residence in Eagle Rock which will be one of the show places of this section of Southern California. It will be a reproduction of the Old Mission rough surface of the days when Indians applied the plaster with their bare hands under the direction of the padres. The house is designed along both Spanish and Colonial lines and is constructed of eight inch hollow walls of brick, partially two stories in height.

Water System Survey

Olmstead & Gillelen, consulting engineers for Glendale on the question of sewage disposal, have been retained by the city of Bakersfield to make a survey on the feasibility of establishing a municipal water system. The project will involve the purchase of the two existing private water systems. The amount of the bond issue necessary to acquire and extend these plants will be determined by the engineers. It is proposed to secure a water supply adequate for a city of 30,000, or 50 per cent greater than the present population of Bakersfield.

Breakwater Proposed

Plans for a breakwater and wharf, for construction of which a $300,000 bond issue will be submitted, have been approved by the city trustees of Redondo Beach. The plans were prepared by C. L. Roberts, construction engineer. They provide for a rubble breakwater at the foot of Third street, extending 1620 feet into the ocean, paralleled by a pier terminating in a dock near the outer end of the breakwater.

Municipal Building

The city of Long Beach is to have an up-to-date fireproof municipal building. The structure will be of the office building type, eight stories and basement, with a three-story extension in the rear. Only the main portion will be erected at the present time. This will be the full eight stories, but the third, fourth, fifth and sixth floors will not be finished immediately. Offices will be provided for the water, tax and police departments and assessor on the first floor. The commissioners and the public works and engineering departments will be taken care of on the second floor and a mezzanine floor will be fitted up temporarily for an emergency hospital. The entire seventh floor will be occupied by the city jail, and the eighth floor will be fitted up for detectives and police.

Sailor Drops His Luck

Allen Parker, aged 20, tired of life on the battleship Texas, stole a sloop and sailed to Catalina. "In all the world no trip like this," he echoed the press agents, and then—

The city marshal of Avalon "ran him in" on a burglary charge and as the able sailor was brought back to the mainland, one can imagine him paraphrasing the popular song, "I lost my luck in Avalon."

Trying to Save 'Bowl'

Mrs. Joseph J. Carter of Hollywood is now engaged in saving the "Bowl," the Greek amphitheatre, for that city. It is a magnificent place which is being used now for community gatherings. Half of it is already the property of the people, but $32,500 more is needed to purchase the balance of it.

Opposes Annexation

The Venice Chamber of Commerce has emphatically expressed itself as opposed to all annexation schemes whereby that city might lose its civic entity. A resolution was adopted recently in which the Chamber made clear its attitude in the matter and members and officers are now pledged to oppose the annexation of Santa Monica to Venice or vice versa.

War Hero Is Accused

Thomas L. Cordrey, said to have been the first to fire a shot on the American side in the war against Germany, today faced a term of from one to ten years in San Quentin prison following his conviction on charges of having passed worthless checks.

He was found guilty of passing a fictitious check on two men in Los Angeles, but information was given to Judge Willis that he had victimized others in San Francisco and Los Angeles out of more than $1,000 in a similar way.

Cordrey was on an American gunboat near Guam when war was declared by the United States. News of the declaration was received by wireless and soon afterward a German raider appeared. Cordrey fired a shot across the bow of the German vessel, which was captured and interned.

Balloting at Pomona

Pomona and its possibility of blue laws being voted today has the "eyes of the world" centered upon it. Brass bands, orators, authors, ministers, minstrels and movie actors—all have been in the melee and the citizens go to the polls today "chock full" of information as to why Sunday should be the same or different from other days in the week.

LAUGHTERS AND TEARS COME TO MANY WHO WITNESS LATEST PRODUCTION

They laughed and cried! Then cried and laughed! And left the theatre with every emotion from hysterical gales of laughter to the stifled sob of sympathy completely exhausted.

That was the experience of the audience at the Palace Grand Theatre last night who went to the opening of Charlie Chaplin's new film, "The Kid," widely advertised as six reels of joy. "Six reels of joy" tells but half of it, for while the comedian has never been so mirth-provoking in any previous production, the story which is unfolded contains more real heart-throbs than many a picture that has built up reputations for emotional actresses.

Charlie is himself, but he has injected himself into a story of heart interest that has seldom been equalled. The synopsis of it sounds rather trite for it starts with the abandonment of her baby by the Woman who has been wronged. Charlie finds the baby and raises him to boyhood. The typical Chaplinesque methods of raising the Kid are responsible for a good part of the humor with which the piece abounds, while his pitiable whimsical procedure to gain the child's love, dampened many an eye. The dramatic climax of the film comes with Chaplin's losing fight, and the Kid's despair when the law separates them, but this is followed so closely by a bit of comedy which, perhaps, is the best bit of the piece, in which Charlie rescues him after a chase over roof tops, that people laughed the lumps right out of their throats.

If you love comedy you cannot afford to miss seeing "The Kid," and if you enjoy being held enthralled in the grip of pathos there is a treat awaiting after you get into the Palace Grand, where it is showing again today and tomorrow. The orchestration is equal to the picture.
